

*La Finca Lodge
San Fernando, Mexico*

About La Finca

San Fernando is located in the Tamaulipas state of Mexico and only about 85 miles south of Brownsville, TX. This region is known as the breadbasket of Mexico as you will see millions of acres of fertile fields covered with Milo. Within a short drive from the city, you can be hunting ducks on the famous Laguna Madre, flushing bobwhite quail on century old hedgerows, or taking aim on the exciting white-wing dove. This area is truly a sportsman paradise right out our backdoor.

The Outfitter

Steve McCain, Jr. grew up in the bayous of Louisiana killing his first duck at the age of six and creating a passion for the outdoors that still burns today. After hunting Mexico for the first time in 2000, he dreamed that one day he would guide groups he once shared blinds with. Recently wrapping up a long career training professional cutting horses, Steve's dream has come true setting up his operation at La Finca Lodge in San Fernando; the perfect location to shoot ducks, dove and quail.

The Hunting

For many years, Mexico has been a popular destination to enjoy a variety of wingshooting species with Americans taking advantage of the easy logistics. Our hunt in San Fernando will consist of harvesting ducks decoying on the big water of the Laguna Madre, chasing hundreds of bobwhite quail and blasting white-wing dove in challenging thickets. Normally guys will shoot ducks each morning followed by lunch then either choose to hunt quail or dove in the afternoons. Extensive scouting is done each day to minimize the drive time to the shooting areas. Airboats will be used to shuttle duck hunters to the islands and we shoot 100% WILD quail, which are both an experience in itself.

The Accommodations

La Finca Lodge located on the southern outskirts of town has offered first class hunting trips in the San Fernando area for over 20 years. The lodge has twelve large bedrooms with private baths & air conditioning. The spacious dining room gives groups plenty of room to enjoy the excellent cuisine and the bar is fully stocked with a classic margarita never far away. Amenities include a swimming pool, hot tub, and game room where groups can relax and enjoy in between or after the hunting. Two separate living rooms allow mixed groups ample space or you may want to challenge each other to a game of pool. La Finca is the perfect lodge for this program and located very conveniently to the hunting grounds. shoot ducks each morning followed by lunch then either choose to hunt quail or dove in the afternoons. Extensive scouting is done each day to minimize the drive time to the shooting areas. Airboats will be used to shuttle duck hunters to the islands and we shoot quail over pointers, which are both an experience in itself.

The greatest advantage of hunting at La Finca is the close proximity to the US. Groups choose to fly into either Brownsville or Harlingen, TX where Steve will be on hand to transfer you about two hours south to San Fernando. Trips will run either Sunday – Thursday or Thursday – Sunday with six hunts given on each trip. To make travel even easier, you can choose to rent one of the many Beretta automatics available at the lodge.
